Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Since his birth in Hamlin County in 1903, Lloyd Jorgenson has devoted his life to being a son, husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd Jorgenson has, for sixty-six years, given tirelessly of himself in service to his fellow citizens by serving as teacher, coach, county official, South Dakota Auditor, South Dakota Treasurer, and an employee of the United States Government; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd Jorgenson has faithfully provided leadership in church and civic affairs resulting in healthier communities, increased opportunities for youth, and appreciation for the privileges of citizenship; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd has contributed significantly to the enjoyment of others through his numerous works of poetry; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd has been an integral influence in the development, growth and success of River Park through his presence and inspiring messages; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd has instilled in all who know him a sense of responsibility, appreciation for the world God gave to all, a sense of humor, an uncomplicated faith, and meaning to the phrase "It's Great To Be Alive;" and,

WHEREAS, It is right, proper and a privilege for the Governor of South Dakota to join with River Park friends, alumni and the people of South Dakota in recognizing his contributions and commemorating the life of this outstanding citizen;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 22, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
